

Portland, Oregon

Hints for getting around town:

- East and West are divided by the Willamette River.
- North and South are divided by Burnside St.
- North Portland (NoPo) is on the east side of the river though.
- North of Burnside in the NW, the streets are alphabetical, so next is Couch, then Davis, Everett, Flanders, and so on.
- The numbers often give you a clue to how many streets north/south you are – 100 for each block (e.g., 650 NW 10th Ave. is on 10th btw. Hoyt & Johnson (remember to start w/Burnside)), or if you are on a name street, the number will correspond with the cross street (e.g., 1250 NW Glisan will be on Glisan btw. 12th & 13th). Easiest in the NW*.
- "Downtown" refers to a portion of SW within the boundaries of the Willamette River and I-405, and south of Burnside St.
- If you are driving, note that there are a lot of one-way streets.
- The Portland Streetcar (goes more North/South) and MAX Light Rail (two lines east/west, and north/south) are free all day, every day within the Free Rail Zone (formerly Fareless Square) that includes downtown (within boundaries of Willamette River, NW Irving, and I-405), the Rose Quarter and the Lloyd District. Look for the Free Rail Zone signs.
- FOR PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION, GO TO THE TRIP PLANNER ON HTTP://TRIMET.ORG
- TAXIS: Radio Cab = #503.227.1212, and Broadway Cab = #503.227.1234
- Many restaurants in Downtown, the Pearl district, and NW Portland are within walking distance of the Hilton Hotel or a short ride on the Portland Streetcar or MAX Light Rail.
- Per Oregon law, if you serve drinks, you have to serve food as well – so there is a lot of overlap in these categories.
- A good source of information is the hotel concierge who can update you on openings/closures of restaurants.
- To find out more information about these places, I recommend websites like yelp.com, citysearch.com, urbanspoon.com, portlandmonthlymag.com, barflymag.com, pdx.eater.com, and oregonlive.com.
- The local daily and weekly newspapers are good to find out what is going on too, especially for music, art, movies, and cultural type events – The Oregonian, www.oregonlive.com, The Mercury - www.portlandmercury.com/, and The Willamette Week - www.wweek.com/. We especially love our indie music scene and other creative communities.

The "Foodie" Scene

Portland is all about food, here are some spots for people who love food
There are too many for this to be a comprehensive list .

Downtown - SW		Closest area to hotel
Clyde Common	1014 SW Stark St (503) 228-3333 www.clydecommon.com	The restaurant in the hip Ace Hotel has family style tables, and really wonderful and creative food
Gruner Restaurant Pronounced "greener"	527 SW 12 th Ave 503-241-7163 http://www.grunerportland.com	Cozy alpine cuisine, also Happy Hour in the bar, M-F, 4:30pm-6:00pm
Pearl District, Old Town & NW		Next closest areas to hotel; still walkable though, also parts accessible by streetcar
Andina	1314 NW Glisan St (503) 228-9535 www.andinarestaurant.com	Peruvian food, a past restaurant of the year in Pdx –restaurant and a bar, it can get busy, so get there early or make a reservation – some really great fish dishes. Gluten-free menu available.
Paley's Place	1204 NW 21st Ave (503) 243-2403 www.paleysplace.net	Classic NW cuisine (little French influence) but the one that usually tops most lists. Not cheap though, make reservations.
Wildwood Restaurant & Bar	1221 NW 21 st Ave 503-248-9663 http://www.wildwoodrestaurant.com	Classic Northwestern cuisine, lunch and dinner, locally sourced menu.
Metrovino	1139 NW 11th Ave (NW Northrup St) (503) 517-7778 www.metrovinopdx.com	Expensive, high-end with a very extensive wine list. There's a less expensive bar menu & happy hour.
Park Kitchen	422 NW 8th Avenue (north park blocks) (503) 223-7275 www.parkkitchen.com	Convivial and inviting bistro in the leafy North Park Blocks.
Silk Vietnamese Restaurant & Bar	1012 NW Glisan St. 503-248-2172 www.silkbyphovan.com	Elegant modern bistro, serving family recipes and innovative dishes.
Across the River -- NoPo, NE, SE		Need to drive there, but worth it
Ken's Artisan Pizza	304 SE 28th Ave They don't take reservations, but worth the wait. (503) 517-9951 www.kensartisan.com/pizza.html	I LOVE this place . . . best pizza in town if you ask me -- and I am from the land of great pizza originally (NY). Get there early or late, but you can always enjoy a beverage while you wait, just don't go hungry if you go during prime time. If you are like me, you may want a whole pie to yourself.
June	2215 E Burnside St (503) 477-4655 www.junepdx.com	Brand new restaurant on the scene that is getting great reviews. This is at the top of my list to try next.
Toro Bravo	120 NE Russell St (503) 281-4464 www.torobravopdx.com	Yummy Spanish food, tapas and best paella in town. Could be a wait and they don't take reservations, but luckily there is a bar above the restaurant called Secret Society. Past winner of best chef in town; without a doubt one of my absolute favorites in town!

Apizza Scholls	4741 SE Hawthorne Blvd (503) 233-1286 www.apizzascholls.com	Others would argue with me and say this is the best pizza in town . . . it's good too. They only make so much dough each day, and then you are out of luck when they run out.
Le Pigeon	738 E Burnside St (503) 546-8796 www.lepigeon.com	Make reservations for this popular French place just across the river (close-in).
FIN	1852 SE Hawthorne Blvd (503) 517-7770 www.finpdx.com/	New seafood restaurant - creative & delicious small plates to share. Yummy! Best oyster I ever had.
Bamboo Sushi	310 SE 28th Ave (503) 232-5255 www.bamboosushipdx.com	Want some sustainable, yet pricey and yummy sushi? Then this is the place to go.
Pok Pok	3226 SE Division St., the original location, Reservations for large groups only; can be long lines. also, Pok Pok Noi, 1469 NE Prescott, picnic tables, eat inside or takeout, and now, Ping, 102 NW 4 th Ave, a Chinatown venture, offers East Asian snacks and drinks. (503) 232-1387 www.pokpokpdx.com	Very popular "temple of Thai street food." Restaurant of the Year in 2007 (Oregonian). They have another nearby spot at 3131 SE Division, called the Whiskey Soda Lounge - I think you can wait there.
Laurelhurst Market	3155 E Burnside St (503) 206-3097 www.laurelhurstmarket.com/	Like meat? Then this butcher shop and nice restaurant is your spot. Top quality meat only. Good stuff.
Cafe Castagna (or Castagna Restaurant)	1758 SE Hawthorne Blvd (503) 231-9959 www.castagnarestaurant.com	American and European comfort food. Don't confuse it with the much more expensive restaurant next door, Castagna Restaurant (Oregonian's best restaurant of the year 2010). Chef of both though, recently received some top chef honors (e.g., one of the 2010 best new chefs by Food & Wine magazine).
Clarklewis	1001 SE Water Ave (503) 235-2294 www.clarklewispx.com	This place doesn't get as much press anymore, but it was one of the pioneers of the foodie scene in Portland. Still solid. Nice space. In the inner SE industrial area that is up and coming now.
Beaker & Flask	727 SE Washington St. (503) 235-8180 beakerandflask.com	WW named it the best restaurant of the year in 2009 – New American cuisine, provocative cocktails.
Ned Ludd	3925 NE Martin Luther King Jr Blvd (503) 288-6900 http://www.nedluddpdx.com	Most everything cooked in a wood fired oven! The usual local, organic themed fare that you will find in many places.
